

Reuter Insight

February 2011

Reuter Benefits – Your Retirement Planning Resource

Are you aware of the support available to you through your company retirement plan?

Your employer provides investment and retirement resources to you through Reuter Benefits, our independent benefit and pension consultants.

The Reuter team of licensed professionals can assist you with the following:

- Understanding your company retirement plan(s).
- Reviewing your tolerance for risk, your investments and the low investment management fees charged.
- Determining whether you are saving enough for retirement.
- Helping you understand your member statement.
- Learning more about the government retirement income programs, specifically Canada Pension Plan and Old Age Security.
- Turning your retirement savings into income at retirement.

We encourage you to take advantage of the Reuter staff dedicated to assist you in your retirement planning. You may contact Reuter Benefits to discuss your investment and retirement questions via telephone at 1-800-666-0142 or email at retire@reuterbenefits.com.